The Spectronic MMS Client

The Spectronic MMS Client is a software bringing MMS to the mobile Internet user in an extremely straight forward and easy to use, both for reading and creating MMS content.

Highlights

- Complies with the MMS specification as defined in the WAP 2.0 specification release.

Features

- Sends multimedia messages
- Receives multimedia messages
- Stores and deletes multimedia messages
- Provides notification of arrival of new multimedia messages
- Can exchange messages with email clients (depending on the MMS server)
- Presents plain text with attachments
- Supports Synchronized Multimedia Integration Language (SMIL) 2.0 basic profile.
- WAP - PUSH, WSP, GET and POST

SPECTRONIC

Since 30 years SPECTRONIC is having a leading position within research, development and production of wireless communication. The companys technical solutions can be found in products from ERICSSON and SIEMENS among many others. SPECTRONIC introduced the first cellular data terminal in the world already in 1992.