The Spectronic MTM GSM Phone Application

The Spectronic MTM Phone Application Client is a software component making the Spectronic Sidetouch to a high performing cellular phone.

Highlights

• Utilising all phone functions provided in a GSM network.

Features

• GSM speech codec: Full Rate and Enhanced Full Rate.
• Display of called number.
• Indication of call progress signals.
• PLMN indication.
• PLMN selection.
• Service indicator.
• International access function.
• Short message overflow indication.
• Auto calling restriction capabilities.
• Dual Tone Multiple Frequency function.
• Subscription identity management.
• Support of encryption A5/1 and A5/2
• Short message service cell broadcast DRX.
• Abbreviated dialling.
• Fixed number dialling.
• Barring of outgoing calls.
• DTMF control digits separator.
• Selection of directory number in short messages.
• Last numbers dialled.

SPECTRONIC

Since 30 years SPECTRONIC is having a leading position within research, development and production of wireless communication. The companys technical solutions can be found in products from ERICSSON and SIEMENS among many others. SPECTRONIC introduced the first cellular data terminal in the world already in 1992.

www.spectronic.se

SPECTRONIC

20020613pbgsmphoneapplication